Paw Paw, Michigan, May 4, 1877.

Wide Awake for May, after its spirited frontispiece. The Children's Moving Day, opens with a quaint story by Mrs. H. G. Rowe, entitled Mrs. White's Parry, a festivity which the guests attend in their night-dresses. It is followed by A Peep into a Lace Kingdom, being an interesting account of a Parisian convent where fine laces are made. In No. V. of Wm. M. F. Rounds charming Child Marian Abroad, Child Marian visits the Pope and procares the Papal Blessing for her doll and upon a brooch for Bridget at home. In Quinnebasset Girls, Sophie May's serial. Emily in the height of her girlish fun encounters some of life's serious aspects. Good, For-Nothing Polly. Miss Farman's serial is concluded, leaving the chief personage fit to become the hero of another story as Good-For-Something Polly. Empress Josephine and the Juggler, by Miss Mary Wager-Fisher and The Last Tournament, are also excellent stories. The attraction of the number however, to many readers, will be No. IX of the Poet Home's Series of papers con-also excellent stories. The attraction of the number however, to many readers, will be No. IX of the Poet Home's Senes of papers contributed by R. H. Stoddard. It relates to Hayard Taylor, and gives portrait and views of Taylor's home at Cedarcroft, accompanied by pages of delightful personal gossip.

The number is completed by poems from Mrs L. C. Whiton, Clara G. Dolliver, &c., including No. V. of the funny adventures of Militades Peterkin Paul, by John Brownjohn, together with the Popu'ar Science Club, Tangled Knots, Parlor Pastimes. Post-office Department and Music.

LAWSON'S

Rheumatism or Neuralgia!

We cannot be too grateful for the discovery of any remedy which will alleviate the sufferings of humanity, not only in the pangs of pain which the patient alone suffers, but in the distress which it entails upon others, Most every sufferer from his own personal experience is aware that the ordinary methods of treating Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica and kindred diseases by internal medicine, is of no avail, and so fast is this impression gaining hold upon intelligent patients that they demand a more potent remedy. The discovery of Lawson's CURATIVE was a riceless boon to thousands who have been cured, and the thousands who are now being relieved of their terrible agonies bear willing testimony to its virtues.

Here we have a CURATIVE agent which though applied externally exerts a powerful and beneficent influence on the whole nerve system—a remedy of indisputable efficacy—seldom failing to afford prompt relief in cases of acute or chronic pains in the nerves

For every kind of Rheumatism, for Neuralgia in every Form, for nervous or Sick Headache, for Nervousness, for Lame Back or Side, for Erysipelas, for Diphtheria and Sore Throat, for Chilblains, for Sprains Bruises, Cuts, Wounds, for Burns and Scalds, for Toothache in fact for all Pains, inflammations and Swellings no remedy is known which possesses the remarkable healing and soothing qualities, which is so universal in its character and scope or so simple and safe in its plication. For these reasons Lawson's CURATIVE should have a place in every family. It will there prove its value in innumerable cases to prevent lingering diseases and should be kept at hand ready for instant
